Bio

Bee Smith is a UK-born award-winning country artist and songwriter, bringing a timeless 90s influence to a modern audience. Known for her emotive vocals and story-driven songwriting, her music reflects classic country traditions with a contemporary edge.

She has collaborated within the Nashville songwriting community, including co-writing “Summer Before The Fall” with Thornton Cline. Her work has received international recognition, including International Songwriter of the Year and multiple Josie Music Award nominations.

“I want my songs to make people feel understood, heard and connected — like they’re not alone in what they’re going through. That’s what country music has always meant to me.”
